

Privacy Policy

Notice

SkyTECH is committed to your privacy. This Privacy Statement discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices and you should read it carefully to understand what we do with any personal information that you provide to us while using our site [<http://www.skytechsolutions.com>].

Overview

In general, we do not engage in any activity that will personally identify our site visitors.

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, to administer our website, and to improve our site based on which features people use most often. Your IP address is also used to help identify you and to gather broad demographic or other non-personal information.

Registration

Using <http://www.skytechsolutions.com> does not require registration of any kind other than voluntary registration for white papers, alumni correspondence and registration to conferences, events and net-sessions organized by SkyTECH. The personal data collected will not be sold to anyone and will be solely used by SkyTECH or its subsidiary, for contact with the registrants. Any information that we have collected or stored about you may be transferred to a future purchaser of our company and/or its assets. The data collected is stored in a secure server with our ISP, which will take periodic backups of it but will not give or sell them to anyone.

Cookies

A "cookie" is a small piece of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then be stored on your system. Currently, we are using just session cookies in a select few pages. But we may use it more widely in the near future so that we can better serve you when you return to our site. You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie, giving you the chance to decide whether to accept it or not. Cookies can be used to provide you with tailored information from our website.

We sometimes collect anonymous information from visits to our website to help us provide better customer service. This anonymous information is sometimes known as "click stream data". We may use this data to analyze trends and statistics and to help us provide you with a better customer service.

Links & Third party content

This website contains links to other websites. SkyTECH is not responsible for the privacy or other practices or the contents of such websites, nor do we take any responsibility for the opinions of third parties expressed on or through our website.

Delete/Deactivate

This site gives users the option for removing their information from our database, to not receive future communications or to no longer receive our service. To delete your record from our database, send us a email at sales.support@skytechsolutions.co.in.

Change/Modify

This site gives users the option for changing and modifying information previously provided. Send email to sales.support@skytechsolutions.co.in to request a change.

SkyTECH reserves the right to modify or update our Privacy Policy at any time without notice, so we encourage you to review this policy from time to time for any such changes.
